

NO MOMENT IS LIKE PRESENT IN THE CONTEST

But a Few Days to Get in on Great Bonus Vote Offer.

Time to Realize on Your Many Promises.

THE "DO IT NOW" SPIRIT.

VOTING LIMIT.

From this time, until further notice, no candidate will be permitted to cast more than enough certificates, or pink slip votes, to place him more than 5,000 ahead of the leader at the preceding publication of scores.

For instance, if the leader of the entire contest has 20,000 votes to his credit at the last publication of scores, a candidate will not be allowed to vote more than enough certificates to make his score 25,000 in the next publication.

This restriction does not apply to the coupon votes clipped from The Sun or associate papers.

No candidate will be permitted to lead two days in succession if any other candidate has enough votes to pass him.

Its rather peculiar, but the fact of the matter is that the contest department is getting rather excited itself about this big $10,000 popularity voting proposition of The Sun and Associate Newspapers. That's why this department wants to impress on every candidate the importance of the "do it now" spirit.

"Do it now." The man or woman who coined that little phrase knew that it embodied the wisdom of centuries; that it was the very bed rock upon which every success rested; that without its application no success, great or small, was ever attained.

You know there is another bonus offer on this week. Considering the many chances that have gone before, this is really a magnificent opportunity. Thirty-five thousand extra votes are not going to be picked up again for $25 worth of NEW business. Neither will a candidate again be given 15,000 extra votes for $25 worth of OLD business.

That is what the contest department wants every contestant to thoroughly understand. No moment should be allowed to slip by unimproved during the remainder of this contest, and particularly during the present bonus period, which ends Saturday night. Ask any successful business man now he manages to accomplish so much in a day and the inevitable answer is that whatever he finds to do, he does it right at that minute. He is therefore never unprepared for any emergency.

Being On Time.

Napoleon laid great stress upon that "supreme moment," that "nick of time" which occurs in every battle, to take advantage of which means victory, and to lose in hesitation means disaster. He said he beat the Austrians because they did not know the value of five minutes. And by that same token, it is claimed that his defeat at Waterloo, the direct result of which was his imprisonment at St. Helena, was largely due to the failure of one of his generals to arrive at the very moment the "Little Colonel" had banked upon.

It is a well known truism that has been elevated to the dignity of a maxim, that what can be done at any time will be done at no time. The fact of the matter is that those who do the really big things in this world do not stand shivering on the bank, thinking of the cold and dreading the danger. They plunge boldly in and scramble through as best they may. The fellow who is perpetually calculating risks and adjusting nice chances is the same fellow who is busy proving to himself that $2 and $2 is $4, while the bold operator doesn't stop to figure how much it makes, but grandly pockets the entire $4.

Candidates will find that they have no time to worry; work is now the proposition with them. A man can wait and doubt and hesitate and consult his brother and his uncle and his cousin and his particular friends until one day he finds that he has lost so much time in consulting these eminent authorities that the contest is over and he has no time left to follow the excellent advice which they so cheerfully gave him. In nine cases out of ten, the same amount of energy burned up in postponing a task, would have accomplished it in the first place.

Postponed Tasks Disagreeable.

Everyone knows how much harder and disagreeable it is to do the work that has been "put off." What would have been done at the time with pleasure, and even with enthusiasm, becomes a positive drudgery after it has been delayed for days or weeks. Doing a deed is like sowing seed. If not done exactly at the right time the crop will be forever out of season, or, more likely, there will never be any crop at all.

Some one who evidently wrote from the bitterness of experience has well said "the whole summer of eternity will not be long enough to bring to maturity the fruit of a delayed action." If a star, or planet, were delayed one instant in its natural course, it might throw the whole universe out of harmony. All of which is worth considerable thought of candidates who have determined to win a prize, or get in on this week's bonus.

The man who acts promptly, though he makes a mistake, will eventually succeed where the procrastinator fails, even though the latter have the better judgment. There is no moment like the present. There is no instant force and energy, save in the present moment. The man who will not execute his resolutions while they are fresh upon him can have but little hope for them afterward. They will be dissipated; lost in the hurry and scurry of fresher and more pressing opportunities.

"Do It Now."

With apologies to the man who wrote "Huckleberry and Grib" for a publication called Common Sense, the contest man wants to crib enough of the poem to inflict on his readers, with a change or two to make it fit the contest proposition. Which would make it read something like this:

"Sigh, and you attain nothing,
Work, and the prize is won;
For a nifty man
With backbone can
By nothing be outdone.

Hustle, and fortune awaits you,
Shirk, and defeat is sure;
For the scarlet and steel
Of an automobile
Escape chaps who can't endure."

Which the contest man is willing to agree is more truth than poetry. So it's up to contestants to absorb the truth. The contest man has tried to explain that perseverance is the most desirable element in the contest business. He has likewise and also finished his day's sermon. Observe it!

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

(Incorporated by the State of New York. Stock Company)
JOHN R. HEGEMAN, PRESIDENT

GREAT REDUCTION OF EXPENSES—INCREASED BENEFITS—LOWER RATES

INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT

In January, 1907, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company largely increased the benefits in its Industrial policies by reason of a heavy reduction in expenses and improvement in mortality experience. During the past three years the Company has steadily reduced its expenses, so that it is enabled to make a further increase in benefits. Industrial insurance policies have a unit of weekly premium—three cents, five cents and multiples thereof—and the amount of insurance varies with the age.

All Industrial Life policies (premiums cease after age 74.) Endowment policies at age 80 and Adult Twenty-year Endowment.

Policies issued since Jan. 1, 1907, will be increased in benefits about ten per cent.,

according to a new table of benefits adopted for policies issued after July 1, 1909. In other words, not only does the Company issue a new table for policies hereafter issued, but it makes the increase retroactive since the present form of Limited Payment and Endowment at age 80 policies were adopted.

Upon the OLD INDUSTRIAL POLICIES the Company is paying out TWO AND A HALF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN BONUSES THIS YEAR, bringing up the total Bonuses and Concessions upon Industrial policies to EIGHTEEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN SIXTEEN YEARS. This is OVER AND ABOVE ANY AND ALL OBLIGATIONS expressed or implied in the policies.

The Metropolitan in its Industrial Department has the lowest Ratio of Expense of all the Industrial Insurance Companies in the world which pay immediate benefits. In FIVE YEARS its

Ratio of Expenses to Premium Income has been Reduced Annual Saving of Three and a Half Millions of Dollars

The new Concertable policy issued by the Company is a novel form of insurance which becomes fully paid-up life insurance in a few years and is then automatically converted into endowment insurance, the maturity of which is periodically shortened as payment of premiums continues.

The Company is abreast of the public demand for combination of term insurance and annuities, and serves the public better than any other agency.

INDUSTRIAL POLICIES IN FORCE: NEARLY 9,500,000, INSURING NEARLY $1,500,000,000.

ORDINARY DEPARTMENT.

The Company has reduced expenses six per cent. in this Department in the last FIVE years—representing an ANNUAL SAVING OF OVER A MILLION AND A QUARTER OF DOLLARS IN THE ORDINARY DEPARTMENT.

The Company issues policies in the Ordinary Department in amounts from $500 to $1,000,000 upon all approved plans at the lowest rates. IN 1908 IT WROTE MORE PAID-FOR BUSINESS IN ITS ORDINARY OLD LINE INSURANCE (exclusive of Industrial), in the United States and Canada, THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY.

All of its policies in the Ordinary as well as the Industrial Department are written on the non-participating plan. The Metropolitan pays its dividends at the start—that is to say, it cuts down the premiums. It believes the plain, common-sense men who make up the bulk of policy-holders look for a plain business contract. By plain business contracts we mean those which tell their whole story upon their face; which leave nothing to the imagination, borrow nothing from hope, require definite conditions and make definite promises in dollars and cents.

In both Departments combined the Company has, in each of the past fifteen years, written more paid-for insurance than any other company in the world.

The Company upon Its Total Business Has in the Last Ten Years Reduced Its Ratio of Expenses to Premium Income Fifteen Per Cent.

A-a-a-a-a-h!

Here is a treat. A dish of steaming Faust Brand Spaghetti—the food that brings the worker to the table with a hearty appetite and that sends him off to work with an energy that lasts until the whistle blows.

Delights the good wife too, because it makes mealtime so easy for her—to say nothing of keeping down food cost.

FAUST BRAND SPAGHETTI

is a perfect food for Spring and Summer, because it makes rich blood, strong bone and muscle without overheating the system—Another advantage over meat. Can be served day after day without the same dish being repeated. In soup—as the principal dish—as a side dish, or as dessert. No wonder Faust Spaghetti is so popular. Try it to-day with this recipe.

Sold by nearly all grocers in five and ten cent packages.
